Area Charities Benefit from KBR Golf Tournament

HOUSTON – KBR (NYSE:KBR) today announced that the company’s third annual charity golf tournament raised $220,000 for twelve Texas charities. The work and missions of the benefitting charities align with KBR’s charitable giving focus areas of education, environment and health.

Proceeds raised from the tournament went to the following charities: Camp for All Foundation, Houston Area Women’s Center, March of Dimes Foundation, Susan G. Komen for the Cure, Communities in Schools – Fort Hood, Fifth Ward Enrichment Program, Cosmos Foundation (Harmony Public Schools), Buffalo Bayou Partnership, Coastal Conservation Association, Discovery Green Conservancy, Hermann Park Conservancy and the Galveston Bay Foundation.

“An integral part of KBR’s mission is our commitment to serve the communities in which we live and work. This tournament and the funds it raised for these charities demonstrate KBR’s commitment to Houston and surrounding areas,” said William P. Utt, KBR Chairman, President and CEO. “The benefitting charities provide much needed services. Our thanks go to those who participated in the tournament and in turn, provided support to these great organizations.”

The theme of this year’s tournament was Master of the Green, which reflects KBR’s commitment to environmental stewardship. As an industry leader in a changing world, KBR recognizes the need for social responsibility and values its commitment to being a good corporate citizen, striving to give back to the communities in which we live and work.

KBR is a global engineering, construction and services company supporting the energy, hydrocarbon, government services, minerals, civil infrastructure, power and industrial markets. For more information, visit www.kbr.com.
